

MINIMUM OPERATING REQUIREMENTS

SportCheer Scotland members (clubs and associates) must abide by the following minimum operating requirements. Should a programme/club act in contradiction to these regulations SportCheer Scotland reserves the right to suspend or cancel the programme/club's membership and/or associated benefits.

1. All training, performances and competitions must be supervised by a qualified coach. No coach may teach skills beyond his/her level of certification.

2. All training, performances and competitions must take place on suitable flooring, tumbling apparatus, safety mats or grass. No stunt or tumble skills may be performed on concrete.

3. Each programme must have a designated Safeguarding Officer and have adequate safeguarding and child protection measures in place.

4. All coaches and those undertaking regulated work must be a PVG Scheme member.

5. All programmes/clubs must have relevant insurance cover for their activities including that for any properties they lease and/or own.

6. Member programmes must register all coaches, staff and athletes at time of registration.

7. All members are subject for audit of documentation and procedures in line with SportCheer Scotland's Membership Terms and Conditions.
